Water of Life (Exodus 17:1-7)

to think about

What difference does it make trusting in God when things don't work out in life? How do we respond?

Read Exodus 17:1-7

What was the problem? (2, 3)

How did Moses respond to them? (2)

How did Moses feel, and what did he do with these feelings? (4)

What happened next? (5-7)

In years to come what would Massah and Meribah signify for the Israelites? (7)

taking it further

How do people know that God is with them?

Are there times when you feel that trusting in God seems to make no difference in the face of difficult circumstances?

What have you found helpful in such times?
